

Between whining step siblings, royal engagements and drunken fairy godmothers, Prudence's life is just about as complicated as it can get. Or so she thought. Chasing a shoplifter with a handful of magic beans from the magic store where she works lands her in a whole new world of trouble. Prince Reinhard is the outcast amongst his family. Only half-giant, he's the black sheep. But with one look at Prudence, he's beyond caring. He's determined to have her. He just has to dodge his crazy mother and her arctic brand of matchmaking, sober up a drunken fairy godmother, and battle his way through the years of insults and put-downs that Prudence has endured from her family and every one else... so that she can see herself the way he does.
