

Three weeks after the events in Altasia, nightmares come to plague Asher. His only defense against them seems to be Jose, but Asher is struggling with Jose's determination to shoehorn them into a relationship. If he's being honest, he isn't quite sure what Jose hopes to get out of a relationship with him besides sex. His problems don't end there, though. Strange things begin to happen in Riverside. Suddenly the bond is back, Jose's sister falls into a coma, and to top it all off, someone sets fire to Asher's house--and it isn't Asher. Somehow, this world and the other one are related, and if Asher wants to keep shit from hitting the fan, he needs to figure out how. There's no time to worry about love, but ignoring it might be his worst mistake ever.
