

Police officer Mia Donovan is studying for the detectives exam when her captain offers her an assignment – be Finn O'Rourke's personal bodyguard for the next three weeks. He's in town to film a movie, he has a stalker, and the threats are escalating. Mia isn't interested – she's focused on the looming exam. But her captain convinces her that successfully protecting Finn will look very good on her record when promotion decisions are made. So, reluctantly, she takes the assignment. Finn isn't the arrogant, egotistical actor Mia expected. There's more than meets the eye when it comes to the most hated man in America, Finn's nickname since he cheated on his girlfriend, a beloved pop star. But his stalker is lurking and the threat is escalating. Although Mia's feelings for Finn are growing, her job is to protect Finn, not fall in love with him. Margaret Watson, a star in the world of contemporary romance, grabs you on the opening page and keeps you reading to the happily ever after. -- New York Times bestselling author Susan Elizabeth Phillips
