

Grayson Wagner is a classical pianist who was unemployed, hungry, and on the brink of being homeless until he's hired by a big-hearted former country music star as her new piano player. Gray loves his job but his new life is threatened when a near fatal accident delivers him into the brawny arms of Jacob Kent, a reclusive park ranger. Their physical attraction quickly turns into much more. But can their love survive Jacob's secret? Or, a shocking revelation that threatens to tear down the very house that love built?
