

The Art of Living offers a functional and practical approach to Feng Shui concepts that make a clear connection between the outer environment and one's inner life. With candor and humor the author tackles everyday concerns and offers the reader key steps to sustaining a positive flow of abundance. The most easily understandable and practical book on this topic. It should make this philosophic approach to integrating surroundings and spirit more accessible to a wider group of people. A fun read! – John Koster, M.D. Internal and Holistic medicine.
